Former Chief Executive David H. Clemons Passes

Brantford, ON Feb 7, 2012— Holstein Canada expresses their sincere condolences to the Clemons family as the Association has learned that former Chief Executive David Clemons has passed away. Clemons served in his role with the Association from 1973 to 1993. He followed a succession of Clemons leaders dating back to 1893, which included his father, George Clemons, who served from 1930 to 1973. The Clemons family had a profound impact and made significant contributions to the Holstein breed and the Canadian dairy industry.

Funeral arrangements have been made at McCleister Funeral Home in Brantford. Visitation will be held on Friday February 10, 2012 from 2 – 4 and 7 – 9 p.m.
