Janet Walker Joins Holstein Canada

Brantford, ON July 13, 2012— Holstein Canada is pleased to announce that Janet Walker has accepted the contract position as Young Adult Coordinator and Market Development Representative based in Brantford, Ontario. In this important role, she will be responsible for leading Holstein Canada's national Young Adult program. As well, the position will involve travel across Canada working with dairy producers and industry partners to expand our market share in the core areas of animal registration, classification, and genomic testing.

Janet has a Bachelor of Education from St. Thomas University as well as a Bachelor of Science in Agriculture from Nova Scotia Agricultural College (NSAC). Since January 2009 she has been employed as a student recruitment officer with NSAC.

Janet brings an excellent knowledge and understanding of the dairy industry having grown up and worked on the family purebred Holstein farm, Lonsview Farms Ltd. located in Sussex, New Brunswick. She was actively involved in 4-H which helped foster her passion for working with youth.

Welcome to Holstein Canada Janet!
